

January 6, 1966

Mrs. Otis Spratt

Mrs. Otis Spratt, 79, of St. Vincent's Home, Seattle, Wash., died Thursday morning, Dec. 23, after a short illness.

Rosary was said at West Home Chapel, Sunday afternoon and Requiem Mass held at 9 o'clock, Monday, Dec. 27th at Holy Rosary Church. She was a member of the Holy Rosary Church Legion of Mary.

Ada M. Tessier was born in Sutton, Neb., on Feb. 24, 1886 and married Otis Spratt, Oct. 23, 1906 at Credit River, Minn.

Mrs. Spratt lived in Groton for 29 years and after her husband's death, she moved to Seattle, Wash., in 1948. She resided there until her death.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Elmer (Bernice) Messing, Groton and Mrs. C. B. (Lucille) Holder of Seattle, Wash. and a son, Sam J. Spratt of Seattle; also eight grandchildren.

Her husband, an infant son and six brothers preceded her in death.

Mrs. Holder and son of Seattle accompanied the remains to Minneapolis, where Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Messing met them. Burial was at Credit River, Minn.